NEW FORMAT FOR 2010:

Both the Varsity and JV Tournament format will consist of 16 or 32 man championship bracketing. We will try to provide for at least 4 matches per individual wrestler. If a wrestler loses twice within his first three matches on Friday, (goes 0-2 or 1-2) he will be placed in a "last chance" round robin bracket against other competitors who are "out" of the bracket in that same weight class. This "last chance" round robin will only be provided to get more matches. No team scoring will result from these matches. We will only wrestle as many rounds as time allows in this "last chance" format.

Seeding: We will pre-seed the tournament with the help of some coaches with teams in the tournament. When you send in line-ups, please provide as much information as possible. This will make seeding easier. We may allow a strong 2nd wrestler in the same weight class in the varsity division if there are openings in the brackets. List them when you submit your line-up. We will place them in the JV Division if there is not room in the Varsity Division.

Line-ups: Watch for more information on sending/emailing line ups in early November. (waiting for update on loading line ups off of OPC)
